JETS DIRECTORS

The New York Jets Directors have earned the reputation as an aggressive group which will not settle for anything less than the best for their team. They have been the impetus for the remarkable transition of the troubled New York entry in the American Football League into one of the most colorful and successful franchises in pro football. Under their aegis, the club hired Weeb Ewbank as its first coach and the move paid off with a World Championship in 1968 and two division titles (1968 & 1969) in the AFL.

Now a new era is upon the Directors and they have responded with their characteristic firm leadership. Under the direction of club President Philip H. Iselin, the Board acted to hire Charley Winner as the new head coach and made an innovative move in bringing him to the Jet scene a year in advance. "I believe in an orderly transition," remarked Iselin a year ago. "I feel that by bringing Charley to our staff, he will gain a full year of learning in our organization."

In another dramatic step, the Directors have embarked upon a project to build the Jets a training complex on Long Island, where the Jets can have access to a "first class" facility to prepare for games. This center, scheduled for completion in time for the 1974 season, will give the Jets a real "home" since the facilities at Shea Stadium for practice and meetings are limited.

Three members of the Jets original Board of Directors have been a guiding force in this development since they acquired the team in 1963—President Philip Iselin; Chairman of the Board Townsend B. Martin; and Vice President and Treasurer Leon Hess. Mrs. Helen L. Springborn, daughter of the late president of the club, Donald Lillis, assumed the post of Vice President and Secretary in 1968 and has become one of the most respected women in professional sports.

The Board of Directors will settle for nothing but the best for their team. They look to the future with optimism and will continue to strive for perfection.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President, is the president of the Korell Company and president and Chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club. The popular Iselin has had an extensive background in racing and enjoys the unique distinction of heading two major sporting concerns. Mr. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N.J. and in 1969 was the recipient of an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Monmouth College (N.J.) for his contributions to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Mr. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities Corp. in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on its Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President and Treasurer, is Chairman and Chief Executive Office of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN L. SPRINGBORN, Vice President and Secretary, is the daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, former president of the New York Jets. Mrs. Springborn is a vivacious and enthusiastic football fan who is in regular attendance at every Jet game and function. She has become one of the most respected women in sports and serves as the first woman on the Board of Directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. She resides with her family in Greenwich, Conn.

WEEB EWBank

VICE PRESIDENT

Having stepped aside from the coaching lines after 20 years as a head coach in pro football, Weeb Ewbank assumes his new duties as vice president of the New York Jets. Ewbank will continue to be an important figure in the operation of the team he helped to build into a championship unit.

In his new post, the 67-year old graduate of Miami (O.) will handle the negotiations with and signing of the players and will oversee the administration functioning of the front office. He will be aided by Executive Assistant Michael Martin.

Ewbank's 20 seasons as a head coach saw him win three World Championships and four divisional crowns and become the only man to win titles in both the NFL and AFL. As coach and general manager, he led the Jets to the 1968 Super Bowl victory and won back-to-back NFL titles with Baltimore in 1958 and 1959.

He began his illustrious coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater and spent 14 seasons there. For his service to Miami University, he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1969.

In 1943 he became an assistant to Paul Brown at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, but after the war became backfield coach at Brown University. In 1947 he moved to Washington University in St. Louis and spent two seasons as head coach, before entering the pros under Brown in 1949 with the AAFC Cleveland Browns entry. He stayed there for five years and in 1954 took his first head job at Baltimore where he took a floundering organization turned it into a successful franchise.

As the only head coach the Jets ever had until now, Ewbank did the same reorganization job in New York over his 1963-1973 tenure.

As an undergraduate of Miami, Weeb was a quarterback, captain of the baseball team, and a forward on the basketball team. A native of Richmond, Ind., Weeb and his wife, Lucy, now make their home in Glen Cove, N.Y. They have three married daughters, all with families.

CHARLEY WINNER

HEAD COACH

Charley Winner, the new head coach of the New York Jets, is an energetic man who has spent the past 20 years of his life coaching pro football. The 47-year old Winner spent the past season as an assistant to Weeb Ewbank and assumes full command now under a three-year contract.

Winner, formerly the head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals has an association with the National Football League which dates back to 1954 when he went to Baltimore as an assistant coach under Ewbank. In the course of 12 years with the Colts, Winner was in charge of the ends, the defensive backs, the linebackers and eventually took over the entire defense as head coordinator. He was the head defensive coach when the Colts annexed a pair of NFL crowns in 1958 and 1959 and when the team won or shared the Western title in 1964 and 1965.

In 1966 Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five years. During his time there he guided the Cards to a 35-30-5 record, the best mark in Cardinal annals. In 1970 the Cards defense put together a string of three straight shut-outs. Under his leadership the Cards set a team record for fewest rushing yards allowed in a season in 1966. In 1970 his Cards were in playoff contention right until the end and finished with an 8-5-1 record after being 4-9-1 in 1969.

Winner moved to the Washington Redskins as coach of the defensive backs in 1971 and helped propel the Redskins into the playoffs and Super Bowl.

Winner has also been associated with Ewbank throughout his life. He has played and coached under Ewbank, and on the personal side, he married Ewbank's daughter, Nancy, in 1950.

Winner's coaching career began as an assistant under Weeb at Washington University in St. Louis in 1948. Winner stayed there two years (only one under Ewbank) before heading for Case Tech where he served under Lou Saban. He was re-united with his father-in-law in 1954 at Baltimore and remained there after Ewbank left in 1964.

"I decided to stay at Baltimore," he recalls, "because I felt it was time to strike out on my own, rather than continue to be associated with Weeb forever, though he and I had a fine working relationship."

Ten seasons later that relationship has been rekindled. "My objective has been to become a head coach again. In going with the Jets, it is a real fine opportunity for me to work in one of the top organizations in football," commented Winner.

A native of Somerville, N.J., Winner was born either on July 2 or 3, 1925, depending on whether you read the birth certificate or listen to his mother. "My birth certificate says July 3," says Winner, "but my mother always said I was born on July 2, so I celebrate both of them."

He was a fine high school halfback but too small for major college notice. With the help of a high school friend who had enrolled there, Winner was offered a scholarship at Southeast Missouri State College, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Winner made the freshman squad in 1941, but was drafted into the Army in the spring of 1942. He became a radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, flew 17 missions over Germany and was shot down in the spring of 1945, spending 6 weeks in a prisoner of war camp before the war ended.

Returning to his education, he enrolled at Washington University where he earned a pair of letters as a halfback and three as a sprinter and also his wife. He received his B.S. degree in 1949.

Winner and his wife have two daughters, Cinda, 21, and Lisa, 16.

JOE NAMATH QB 6-2 200 31 10 Alabama

PRO: Despite the injuries which have plagued him in recent years, still considered by opposing coaches to be the most dangerous quarterback in the game. . .came off a shoulder separation to play in four of the last five games of the year and led the Jets in passing on the passer-rating scale. . .was the leading AFC passer in the '73 pre-season, but was cut down in only the second game of the year when Baltimore's Stan White hit him on a blitz. . .he suffered a separation of the right shoulder and was out of action for seven weeks. . .he returned dramatically at Cincinnati to take the Jets to the brink of victory, but two disputed calls denied them. . .in 4½ minutes of action, Namath hit on 6 of 13 passes for 98 yards and time ran out with him on the one yardline after two passes to Richard Caster had been ruled not in the end zone. . .quarterbacked strong games against Atlanta and Baltimore in subsequent weeks, but his knee flared up prior to the Eagles game and he sat that one out. . .he finished out the season with a two-touchdown, 206-yard day against Buffalo. . .off-season medical reports by Jet doctors indicate that his shoulder and knees are strong and he should be in fine shape for 1974. . .the sudden injury was the third in four years to sideline the Jets all-pro signal caller. . .in 1970 he suffered a broken wrist and in 1971 he tore ligaments in his left knee in his first pre-season game. . .injury-free 1972 showed that the Joe Namath magic is still there as he completed a banner season in which he passed for more yards than any other QB and tied for the NFL lead in TDs (19). . .won all-pro honors and earned his 5th selection to the Pro Bowl, though he had to decline due to ankle injuries suffered late in the '72 season. . .put together some of his best individual efforts in 1972, becoming only the third QB in history to have two 400-yard games in one season. . .the first was his best day ever as he tore the Colts apart with 6 touchdown passes and 496 yards, the third best yardage total in history. . .he went 15 for 28 that day and the six TDs came off a total of only 15 plays, three of them on first down to Richard Caster. . .it took his 6 TDs to beat John Unitas that day as he also had his finest yardage day. . .the pair set an NFL record for combined passing yards with 872. . .later in the year Namath tossed for 403 yards against Oakland in a Monday night affair. . .working with a patchwork backfield due to injuries, he was obliged to throw 46 times, and hit on 25. . .though he is known for his passing exploits, Namath also is a master of directing the running game. . .shunning the pass, he called a game which saw the Jets set a club record of 333 rushing yards in a 1972 41-13 win over New England. . .when defenses are geared for his arm, he turns to the backfield masterfully. . .is a member of the all-time all-AFL team selected by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. . .combined (AFL-NFL) all-pro following the 1968 campaign as well as earning the honor in 1969 and 1972, his last two injury-free seasons. . .gained almost every possible honor after guiding the Jets to the Super Bowl win over Baltimore. . .named winner of the Hickok Belt, AFL MVP, Super Bowl MVP and the George Halas Award as the Most Courageous Player. . .was Jets MVP in 1968 and 1969 by vote of his teammates. . .has been captain of the offense in 1968-70 and 1972. . .won the New England Writers "Colelough Award" as most courageous following his return to action from knee surgery in 1971 when he came in to throw 3 TDs against San Francisco. . .during the Super Bowl campaign he went through 6 games without a touchdown pass, but the Jets won 5 of those games. . .threw for 3 TDs in the AFL Championship Game (2 to Maynard, 1 to Lammons). . .called nearly a perfect game in the Super Bowl, hitting on 17 of 28 for 206 yards. . .owns the Jet record for longest pass play with a 87-yarder to Don Maynard at San Diego in 1968. . .also clicked for an 83-yard strike to Ed Bell in 1972 to defeat Baltimore. . .holds virtually all the Jet passing records. . .has been over 300 yards 20 times in his career (3 of those being over 400). . .shares NFL record for consecutive pass completions with 15 in back-to-back games against Miami and Boston in 1967. . .only passer in pro history to go over 4000 yards in one season with 4007 in 1967. . .AFL Rookie of the Year in 1965, AFL All-Star Game MVP in 1965 and co-MVP of star game in 1967. . .a fine runner in college, Namath has rushed only 47 times for 123 yards in his career. . .longest run was 39 yards against Oakland in 1966. . .Namath has appeared in 28 of the 56 regular season Jet games from 1970 through 1973. . .in that period, the Jets won 21 and lost 35. . .with Namath the starting or responsible QB, the Jets won 11 and lost 14. . .prior to 1970 Namath had played in 74 consecutive games plus three post season games. . .he was the starting or responsible QB for a record of 39-23-4 and was the "winning" QB in the '68 AFL title game and Super Bowl III. . .in that same period Jets were 40-26-4. . .since Namath came to team, Jets have gone 61-61-4 and he has been 50-37-4. . .has had four knee operations. . .right knee operated on for removal of cartilage and repair of ligament on Jan. 25, 1965, 23 days after signing first contract. . .had cartilage removed and a tendon transfer in major operation on right knee on Dec. 28, 1966. . .left knee operated on for repair of small tendon tear on Mar. 20, 1968. . .a "5-in-1" operation on his left knee was performed on Aug. 8, 1971 for ligament and cartilage damage and a tendon transfer after suffering injury against Detroit when hit by Paul Naumoff while trying to tackle Mike Lucci. . .all the operations were performed by Jets orthopedist James A. Nicholas. . .drafted first by Jets and Cardinals in 1965.

COLLEGE: "The greatest athlete I've ever coached" said coach Paul (Bear) Bryant. . .during his three years the Tide lost only 3 regular season games and made 3 bowl appearances. . . '63 Orange, '64 Sugar and '65 Orange. . .was MVP of '65 Orange Bowl on the eve of signing with Jets. . .completed 64% of his passes as a senior. . .career stats: 230 of 428 for 3,055 yards and 29 TDs, 54%. . .rushed 213 times for 597 yards and 15 TDs. . .outstanding player in '63 Orange Bowl.

BOB PARRISH DE 6-5 245 23 1 Duke

PRO: Turned in a very promising pre-season when a back injury in the final pre-season game sidelined him. . .he was placed on the reserve list and returns this year to try again. . .reported with a low weight for a defensive lineman, but by year's end he was up in the 240s and should be able to maintain it. . .worked at both end and tackle, but is thought of primarily as an outside pass rusher, which is his strength. . .drafted 13th in 1973.

COLLEGE: Made 2nd team all-ACC and was all-academic in ACC. . .twice voted player of the week. . .showed his pass rush techniques strongly.

PERSONAL: Single. . .majored in English and political science. . .went on NCAA-sponsored tour of Korea and Southeast Asia. . .works as public relations and recreation director for a resort hotel in Florida. . .turned down a chance to go to Duke Law School to play pro football. . .Hometown: Jacksonville Beach, Fla.

GARRY PUETZ T-G-C 6-3 255 22 2 Valparaiso

PRO: A surprise member of last year's rookie crew, Puetz won a starting job at right guard by the end of camp and was developing nicely according to coaches. . .he started first four games ahead of veteran Dave Herman. . .suffered a broken sesimoid bone in his foot at New England and was forced onto the inactive list for seven of the remaining 9 games. . .thought of very highly by Charley Winner and his staff and will work at tackle, guard or center. . .is considered to be a good potential center. . .learned solid fundamentals of pass protection and worked well in partnership with Winston Hill on the right side. . .Puetz and Robert Woods became the only rookie offensive linemen to win a starting job with the Jets since Randy Rasmussen did it in 1967. . .drafted 12th in 1973.

COLLEGE: Twice a college division all-America choice at tackle. . . all-Indiana Collegiate Conference three times. . .also played center.

PERSONAL: Single. . .was a kicker in college in addition to line work. . .majored in physical education. . .pronounces name "Pets". . . Hometown: Chicago, Ill.

RANDY RASMUSSEN G 6-2 267 29 8 Kearney State

PRO: Has been a top performer on the Jets offensive line for the past seven seasons, holding down the left guard slot. . .known for his great pass blocking and his powerful one-on-one type of work. . .a leader who was able to work closely with rookie Robert Woods when the latter became the left tackle. . .is perhaps the best pulling guard the Jets have ever had. . .a very coachable player who provides a link in Joe Namath's corps of protectors. . .one of the reasons why the Jets running game has been so successful in recent years when Namath was sidelined. . .drafted 12th in 1967.

COLLEGE: All-NAIA choice for two years. . .three-time all-Conference. . .played at tackle then.

PERSONAL: Married. . .wife, LaWana. . .daughter Ericka Lee, 18 mos. . .majored in mathematics. . .grew up on a farm. . .likes to hunt, play golf and tennis. . .in great demand on the off-season banquet circuit. . .works as institutional broker for Jeffries and Co. during the off-season. . .makes off-season home in Elmsford, N.Y. . . Hometown: Elba, Neb.

JOHN RIGGINS RB 6-2 230 25 4 Kansas

PRO: "John has the potential to be the greatest fullback to ever play this game," says head coach Charley Winner. . .it is all up to John to fulfill that potential, adds Winner. . .Riggins missed all of training camp while wrestling with a contract dispute and deciding whether he wanted to play. . .when he reported, five days before the opening game, he was rusty but in good shape. . .he finished with 482 yards and 4 TDs but never quite did get to the form that propelled him to stardom in his sophomore season when he ran for 944 yards. . .regained his accustomed starting position in the second game and improved steadily . . .broke out for his second best day in history with a 132-yard effort against New England. . .had back-to-back days of 79 and 96 yards against Miami and New England at Shea before injuring his shoulder early in the game at Cincinnati. . .that injury knocked him onto the inactive list for four of the last five games and kept his duty limited in the other. . .during 1972, he showed that he is a great one who can carry the load that Matt Snell used to have with the Jets. . .his 944 yards were just 4 yards shy of Snell's season mark and his blocking developed to a fine point. . .despite missing the final two games of '72 with minor knee surgery, he carried the ball 207 times, also second only to Snell. . .had his best day as a pro with 168 yards at New England on 32 carries, one of 3 100-plus afternoon. . .as a rookie he became the first Jet ever to lead the team in rushing and receiving. . .teams up well with Emerson Boozer in the backfield and is a key to the Jets offense. . .has caught 80 career passes, among them a 67-yard TD grab against Baltimore in 1972. . .Weeb Ewbank compares Riggins to Alan Ameche and Marion Motley in terms of potential. . . "one of the fastest learners I ever had" remarks Ewbank. . .first round draft choice in 1971.

COLLEGE: Broke all of Gale Sayers' records at Kansas with 2706 yards over three years. . .also set Jayhawk season mark with 1131 yards as a senior. . .never missed a game or practice at Kansas. . .all-America and 3 times all-Big Eight. . .played in College All-Star Game and North-South Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Single. . .set 60 yard dash state record in high school with a 6.4. . .twice a state 100-yard dash champ with 9.8. . .majored in journalism and public relations. . .hails from Centralia, Kansas, a small town with only 500 people and no street signs. . .biggest thrill in sports was seeing himself on a bubble gum card. . .Hometown: Centralia, Kan.

THE 1973 JETS

GAME BY GAME

GREEN BAY 23, NEW YORK 7 — At County Stadium, Milwaukee, SRO attendance, 47,124, cloudy and mild. In the opening game on Monday night television, the Jets offense could not get going with any consistency and the Jets dropped their fourth straight Monday night, 23-7, to the Packers. Three Chester Marcol field goals and touchdowns by Rich McGeorge and John Brockington spelled doom for the Jets, whose only score came with 28 seconds remaining on an Al Woodall to David Knight pass. Despite a 203 yard display by Joe Namath, the Jets could only penetrate Packer territory three times in the game. MacArthur Lane and Brockington combined for 133 rushing yards as the Pack displayed steady ball control throughout.

NEW YORK 34, BALTIMORE 10 — At Memorial Stadium, SRO attendance, 55,942, warm and cloudy. The Jets experienced bittersweet success in the second week as they defeated Baltimore, 34-10, in Weeb Ewbank's final visit to Baltimore, but also lost Joe Namath with a shoulder separation in the first quarter. Namath was felled by blitzing linebacker Stan White and was to be sidelined for seven weeks. Al Woodall relieved and threw a spectacular 17 of 21 for 149 yards and 2 TDs to rally the Jets and the defense had its best day ever with eight interceptions. Richard Sowell picked off three Colt passes as the Jets swiped four from Bert Jones and four from Marty Domres. Ed Bell and John Riggins scored on Woodall passes.

BUFFALO 9, NEW YORK 7 — At Rich Stadium, SRO attendance, 80,020, clear and warm. Three John Leypoldt field goals and inconsistency in all phases of the game led to the Jets second defeat of the year, 9-7, at the hands of Buffalo in the inaugural game at the Bills' new home in Orchard Park. A poor punt, a fumble and a crucial penalty set up all three field goals and the Jets only averted a shutout with a 34-yard Al Woodall to Jerome Barkum pass with two seconds to play. The Jets offensive line suffered continual breakdowns and the team was hit with 7 penalties. O.J. Simpson led the way for the Bills with a 123-yard afternoon.

MIAMI 31, NEW YORK 3 — At The Orange Bowl, SRO attendance, 80,047, hot and clear. It was a depressing afternoon for the Jets as the eventual champions Miami rolled to a 31-3 victory and the Jets saw their second quarterback of the year get hurt. Al Woodall suffered torn ligaments in his left knee when hit by Bill Stanfill in the third quarter, and Webb Ewbank had to reach back for Bill Demory, a free agent QB, to finish the game. Demory directed the Green to its only score of the day, a 38-yard Bob Howfield field goal, but the story of the game was Miami's QB Bob Griese. Griese went 10-17-173 and had three touchdown passes, two of them to Paul Warfield as the Dolphins built a 24-0 halftime bulge.

NEW YORK 9, NEW ENGLAND 7 — At Schaefer Stadium, attendance, 58,659, breezy and mild. Bobby Howfield's third field goal of the day with under two minutes remaining gave New York a 9-7 win over the Patriots and Bill Demory's first NFL victory. Demory directed the team as Joe Namath and Al Woodall watched from the sidelines, injured. Demory relied on his ground arsenal (58 rushing plays) with John Riggins grinding out 132 yards and Emerson Boozer running for 73. The young QB only completed 1 pass, but that 11-yarder to David Knight in the fourth quarter set up the winning field goal. The Jets defense picked off two Jim Plunkett passes, held the Pats to only 172 yards, and did not yield any points. The New England score came on a blocked punt in the third quarter.

PITTSBURGH 26, NEW YORK 14 — At Three Rivers Stadium, SRO attendance, 48,682, sunny and cool. Despite an heroic show by the defense and a strong effort from Bill Demory, the Jets succumbed to the playoff-bound Steelers, 26-14, in a game which was ousted from Shea Stadium due to the World Series. Pittsburgh scored twice in the fourth quarter as Ron Shanklin hauled in relief QB Terry Hanratty's pass and Franco Harris plunged from the two. Harris came off the bench to race for 102 yards, 57 of them in the fourth period. Demory was 6 of 15 for 84 yards and a TD to Rich Caster, but the Steelers' 360-yard total offense was too much to contend with in the end.

DENVER 40, NEW YORK 28 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 61,018, cool and cloudy. After six weeks on the road, the Jets finally staged their home opener and found the going tough as Denver scored a 40-28 victory. The Broncos leaped out ahead, 21-0, in the first quarter with three TDs in a span of only 1:36 and four Jim Turner field goals added to the margin. Burgess Owens put the Jets on the board with an 82-yard kickoff return in the first quarter, the first KO return since 1966 to go all the way. Jerome Barkum caught two Al Woodall TD passes, but Charley Johnson's passing and Joe Dawkins' running (117 yards) were overpowering. The Broncos' 432 yards of offense was to be the highest total against New York all year.

MIAMI 24, NEW YORK 14 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,365, clear and mild. Miami came to life in the second half and turned back a strong Jet defensive effort, 24-14. Larry Csonka ran for 81 second half and turned back a strong Jet defensive effort, 24-14. Larry Csonka ran for 81 second half yards and Bob Griese completed a 13-19-198 effort as the Dolphins broke a halftime tie to ease to the victory. While Csonka and Griese did their thing, the "no-name" defense did its own number, not allowing Al Woodall's offense any closer than the 39 yardline in the second half. Nine Jet penalties clipped drives and stifled the attack continually.

NEW YORK 33, NEW ENGLAND 13 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 60,737, sunny and cool. The Jets offense and defense both got well on the same afternoon as the Green pounded out a 33-13 victory over the Patriots. The Jet defense allowed only 149 yards, its best display since 1970, and the Jets offense rushed for 267 yards, third best in the club's history. John Riggins (96 yards) and Emerson Boozer (79 yards) led the way with a touchdown each and Bill Demory, in relief of Al Woodall, tossed a 31-yard TD to Jerome Barkum in the fourth quarter. The Jet defense forced New England into five lost fumbles and three interceptions.

CINCINNATI 20, NEW YORK 14 — At Riverfront Stadium, SRO attendance, 55,745, cool and cloudy. Time ran out on Joe Namath and the Jets in a wild, controversial finish which saw the Jets fall 6 inches short. Coming on with 4:40 to play, Namath, in his first appearance since being injured seven weeks earlier, nearly brought the Jets out on top. Twice Namath threw into the end zone, to Rich Caster and both times it was ruled no touchdown, generating a vocal outcry from Namath and the entire team. Then in a series of confusing penalties, time ran out before the Jets could run another play from the 1 yardline. Despite the disappointment, it was a fine day for the Jets, who amassed 357 yards of offense, most of it from the passing of Woodall and Namath. Woodall hit on 20 of 31 for 212 yards and Namath, in his brief stint, was 6-13-98.

ATLANTA 28, NEW YORK 20 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 61,327, mild and heavy rain. Amidst a drenching downpour, the Atlanta Falcons broke open a close game with a touchdown pass just before the half and went on to turn back a Jet rally to win, 28-20, and keep their NFC playoff hopes alive. Bob Lee hit Louis Neal with a 47-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half to give the Falcons a cushion and then a fourth period 1-yard dash by Eddie Ray put the game out of reach. Jet mistakes nullified Joe Namath's full-time return to action as the Falcons scored off two broken coverages and a fumble on the one. Namath was 15 for 32 for 191 as he had to play catch-up throughout the game. The Jets suffered three interceptions and lost three fumbles to aid Atlanta's cause.

NEW YORK 20, BALTIMORE 17 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 61,009, cold and clear. Behind Joe Namath's 11 for 14 passing, the Jets moved to a 17-0 halftime lead but were forced to hang on gamely for a 20-17 victory. The Colts struck for 17 fourth-quarter points to put them back in the game, but Bobby Howfield's 18-yard field goal in the same period provided the margin of victory. With two minutes to play, a Colt holding penalty forced George Hunt to try a 46-yard FG which drifted wide to save the game for New York. Namath tossed a touchdown to Emerson Boozer and Phil Wise returned a Raymond Chester fumble 80 yards for the other Jet TD.

PHILADELPHIA 24, NEW YORK 23 — At Veterans Stadium, SRO attendance, 65,953, chilly and heavy rain. For the second week in a row, the Jets moved out to a 17-0 lead but this time they could not make it stand up as the Eagles charged back for a 24-23 victory. Al Woodall got the QB call as Joe Namath was hobbled with a knee injury and quickly got the Jets 17 points, but from then on it was all Roman Gabriel and the Eagles. Gabriel tossed TD passes to Don Zimmerman (2 yds.) and Harold Carmichael (62 yds.) and then late in the third quarter John Outlaw picked off a Woodall pass and returned it 45 yards for what proved the winning points. The loss offset a 160-yard rushing effort by Emerson Boozer. A record of 31,333 "no shows" was set as well.

BUFFALO 34, NEW YORK 14 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 60,418, cold with light snow. O.J. Simpson smashed the NFL season rushing mark with a 200-yard afternoon and paced the Bills to a 34-14 victory. Simpson carried 34 times to wind up the year with 2003 yards, his final rush coming in the fourth quarter. Joe Namath threw two touchdown passes, but the Jets could never get going consistently. Poor punting and mistakes kept Buffalo in good field position throughout for O.J. to pursue his records. A punt return for a TD by Bill Cahill in the final minute of the first half put the game out of reach.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

For the second year in a row the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969 the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus, on December 20 the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal to go on the one yardline, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets series, but a fourth-down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the World Championship.

SHEA STADIUM

HOME OF THE JETS

One of the premier showcases of the National Football League; William A. Shea Stadium is the home of the New York Jets. The multi-colored tiers of seats have housed Jets fans since the club moved from the old Polo Grounds for the 1964 season.

The stadium is at the center of a vast transportation network, which enables fans to arrive by land, sea or air with nearly equal ease. Vehicular traffic utilizes a $111 million complex of parkways, while crowds may also use the I.R.T. Flushing line subway which runs directly to the Willets Point station, only a few steps from Shea. The Long Island Railroad station is within easy walking distance as is the enlarged Flushing Bay Marina. Both Kennedy International and LaGuardia airports are minutes away by taxi.

There are 60,000 seats for Jet football games and all are totally unobstructed by columns or posts. Every seat has a clear view of the field. An ingenious system of seat rotation along railroad tracks allows 10,000 permanent seats to be moved electrically to positions along the sidelines. Over 19,000 seats are on the ground level; 14,000 are on the second tier, while 20,000 more are in the upper deck. Temporary seats, accommodating 5,000 fans are installed in both end zones of the stadium.

Shea has one of the nation's most modern lighting techniques, with lights running in continuous strips around the cantilevered roof, eliminating all towers except for two banks beyond the endzone.

From 1964 through 1969 the Jets established AFL attendance records at Shea. In 1972 the Jets established a club record with an attendance of 441,581, an average of 63,083 a game. The Jets also hold the record for the largest single game AFL attendance — 63,865 — which jammed the stadium to watch New York play Oakland on Nov. 30, 1969. The largest crowd ever to see an event at Shea was the 63,962 which jammed in to see the Jets and Redskins on Nov. 5, 1972.

New Ownership — A five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York franchise for $1-million (Mar. 28)

Ewbank Chosen & Titans to Jets — Weeb Ewbank, who had been released by Baltimore, was named head coach of the team. On the same day the new owners changed the name from Titans to Jets (April 15)

Assistant Coaches — Ewbank designated Clive Rush, Walt Michaels, J. D. Donaldson and Chuck Knox as his assistant coaches. George Sauer, Sr. retained as head talent scout

Training Camp — Jets move to Peekskill, N.Y. for their first training camp

QB Troubles — Still needing a quarterback and the opening day less than a week away, Ewbank picked up Dick Wood as a free agent

Opening Game — Boston upended Jets, 38-14, in the opener at Boston College (Sept. 8)

First Victory — Jets won first game under new ownership as they defeated Houston, 24-17, at the Polo Grounds in the home opener. Marshall Starks set AFL record with 97-yard TD return of a missed field goal (Sept. 22)

Cancelled Games — AFL calls off games on day of national mourning for President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 24)

Snell Drafted — The Jets made Matt Snell, RB, Ohio State, their number one draft choice. Snell also drafted by the Giants. Snell became the first number one to sign with the N.Y. team. Also signing were Dave Herman and Mike Taliaferro, both drafted by Jets and Giants, and high draft choices Gerry Philbin and Ralph Baker

Shutout — Jets record only shutout in their history, a 17-0 blanking of Kansas City at the Polo Grounds (Dec. 1)

The Season — The Jets finished last (5-8-1) but they were successful at the boxoffice, drawing 103,550 for 7 games

1964

Trade — Jets and Denver complete historic 9-player deal. Jets sent Dick Guesman, Ed Cooke, Charlie Janerette, Jim Price and Sid Fournet to Denver for Gene Prebola, Wahoo McDaniel, Gordy Holz and Bob Zeman (January)

TV Pact — AFL and NBC announced a 5-year television contract calling for $36,000,000 starting with the 1965 season (Jan. 29)

New Home — Jets move into Shea Stadium, beating Denver 30-6, before an AFL record crowd of 45,665. Jets' Gene Heeter scored the first Shea TD. (Sept. 12)

Snell Record — Matt Snell rushes for 180 yards as Jets topple Houston at Shea (Oct. 17)

Record Crowd — 60,300 sat in at Shea saw Buffalo stop the Jets, 20-7 (Nov. 8)

Trade Rights — Jets trade rights to Jerry Rhome to Houston in return for a number one draft choice

Namath Drafted — Using their pick gained from Houston, the Jets drafted Alabama QB Joe Namath

Snell Honored — Matt Snell was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Snell gained 948 yards on 215 carries and caught 56 passes (Dec. 17)

1965

Namath Signs — The day after the Orange Bowl game, Joe Namath signed a Jets contract reported to be worth $427,000 (Jan. 2)

Huarte Signs — Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte of Notre Dame signed a Jets contract estimated to be worth $200,000 giving the Jets over half a million dollars worth of QB talent within a week (Jan. 9)

Namath Operation — Twenty-three days after signing, Joe Namath entered Lenox Hill Hospital to undergo an operation for cartilage and ligament damage in his right knee (Jan. 25)

Rookie Game — Joe Namath plays in his first professional game as the Jets rookies beat the Patriot rookies at Lowell, Mass. (July 28)

First Appearance — After sitting on the bench for the opener, Namath entered the second quarter vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18)

First Start — Joe Namath starts his first game (3rd of the year for Jets) and throws 19 for 40 for 287 yards and 2 TDs, but Jets lose, 33-21, to Bills (Sept. 26)

First Win — After going 0-5-1, the Jets stopped Denver, 45-10, at Shea (Oct. 31)

Draft for 1966 – Jets draft Bill Yearby, Carl McAdams, Emerson Boozer and Pete Lammons

Namath Honored – Joe Namath was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Namath completed 164 of 340 for 2220 yards with 18 TDs and only 15 interceptions.

Upsets – Behind Al Woodall's quarterbacking and the top AFC defense, the Jets upset the powerful Rams and Vikings within a three-week span, toppling two of the NFC's leading contenders (Nov. 15, Nov. 29)

Worst Record – The Jets closed out with a 35-20 loss to Baltimore to give the club a 4-10 record, the poorest in the 11-year history of the franchise (Dec. 19)

1971

Draft – Jets select John Riggins, Kansas running back, in the first round of the draft (Jan. 28)

Sauer Retires – The Jets all-pro wide receiver, George Sauer, a five-year veteran, announced his retirement from football (April 16)

Biggs Departs – Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time ever as Verlon Biggs, DE, signed with Washington. The Redskins sent two draft choices as compensation (June 10)

Namath Hurt – For the second time in as many seasons, Joe Namath was forced out of the lineup. This time he was hurt in first pre-season game trying to make a tackle on a fumble runback and underwent surgery on his left knee immediately (Aug. 7)

Major Trade – The Jets sent their second draft choice to Oakland in exchange for tackle Bob Svihus who became a starter at LT, moving Winston Hill to the right side and sealing the tackle problem. (Aug. 26)

Opener – Al Woodall opens the season in place of injured Joe Namath but the Jets suffer their first shutout since 1963 at the hands of Baltimore, 20-0 (Sept. 19)

QB Switch – Jets switch to Bob Davis at QB for the home opener and the new leader engineered a 28-17 home opener victory (Oct. 17)

Namath Returns – Joe Namath, on the sidelines for 19 straight games, made his return in the second quarter against San Francisco and tossed 3 TD passes and for 358 yards as the Jets barely fell to the 49ers, 24-21 (Nov. 28)

Attendance Record – Jets close out with a 35-21 win over Cincinnati and set a one-season home attendance mark of 441,099 (Dec. 19)

1972

Draft – The Jets, with two first round picks, tab WR Jerome Barkum of Jackson State and LB Mike Taylor of Michigan (Feb. 1)

Namath Signs – Joe Namath signed a two-year contract for a reported $250,000, becoming the highest paid player in the game (Aug. 1)

Namath Sparkles – Joe Namath had his finest day as a pro, throwing for 496 yards and 6 touchdowns as the Jets defeated Baltimore, 44-34, Namath and John Unitas set an NFL combined record for passing yardage – 872, (Sept. 24).

Rushing Mark – Jets set club rushing record of 333 yards as team defeated Patriots, 41-13. John Riggins (168 yds.) and Emerson Boozer (150 yds.) became first tandem in history to hit the 150-yard mark in a game. (Oct. 15).

Maynard Mark – Don Maynard became pro football's All-Time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch. The historic grab came in the 4th quarter at Oakland (Dec. 11).

Even Season – Jets closed out 7-7 campaign with a 26-10 loss to Cleveland. (Dec. 17).

Weeb Steps Down – Weeb Ewbank announced that 1973 will be his final campaign as head coach of the Jets. (Dec. 18).

1973

Draft – Jets pick Burgess Owens, CB, Miami (Fla.) as their first round draft choice. (Jan. 30).

Winner Hired – Charley Winner, former head coach of St. Louis, is named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets starting with the 1974 season. Winner serves as an assistant coach under Ewbank for 1973. (Feb. 1).

Namath Hurt — Another in Joe Namath's series of injuries struck in Baltimore when blitzing linebacker Stan White separated his shoulder. The Jets went on to win behind Al Woodall, 34-10 (Sept. 23)

Another QB Injury — The Jets lost their second QB in three weeks when Al Woodall suffered ligament damage in his left knee at Miami when Bill Stanfill knocked him out of bounds (Oct. 7)

Free Agent Shines — Bill Demory, a free agent QB, made his first NFL start and directed a 9-7 victory over New England, throwing only 7 passes, completing 1 (Oct. 14)

Jets Evicted from Home — Due to World Series games, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road, including moving the Pittsburgh game to Three Rivers Stadium. This left the Jets with only six games for the home fans (Oct. 21)

Controversial Loss — Joe Namath returned to action after seven weeks and nearly directed a win over Cincinnati, but two controversial calls by the officials denied the Jets and the game ended on the 1-yard line (Nov. 18)

Ewbank-O.J. — Weeb Ewbank's last game after 11 years as Jets head coach but, Buffalo's O.J. Simpson provided the fireworks as the Jets finished out at 4-10. Simpson broke the NFL season rushing mark with a 200 yard afternoon and wound up with 2003 for the year (Dec. 16)

1974

Draft — Charley Winner, directing his first draft as head coach of the Jets, tabs DT Carl Barzilauskas of Indiana in the first round (Jan. 29)
